Last Week's Highlights:

- The Soldotna High School track and field program competed at the annual Kenai Invite on Friday and Saturday. The girls finished second overall in the team standings, receiving strong individual performances from Brittany Taylor (3rd in the 200), Sophie Thomas (3rd in the 100 hurdles), Ituau Tuisaula (3rd in the shot put), and Emily Pieh (3rd in the discus). The boys finished third overall, garnering impressive individual performances from Brenner Furlong (1st in the 100 and 2nd in the 200), Abraham Van Hout (3rd in the 110 and 300 hurdles), and Wendell Tuisaula (1st in the discus). The boys' 400 meter relay team of Chris Gilbert, Koby Vinson, Logan Schrader, and Brenner Furlong also took home first place.
- The SOHI girls soccer team defeated Kodiak 7-0 on Friday and 7-1 on Saturday at Justin Maile Field. In Friday's game, Soldotna was led by the play of Ryann Cannava and Elena Bramante as each notched hat tricks (three goals apiece). On Saturday, the Stars were led by Haley Buckbee and Ryann Cannava, each scoring two goals. SOHI is now 4-3 on the season (1-1 in conference).
- The SOHI boys soccer team defeated Kodiak 4-0 on Friday and 5-2 on Saturday. In Friday's game, SOHI was led by Eli Sheridan who scored two goals. Eli once again led the way Saturday, putting in two more goals for the Stars. Soldotna is now 3-4 on the season (1-1 in conference).
- The SOHI softball team got in their first game of the season on Saturday. The game was full of firsts as Soldotna is sporting many new faces this season. Alicia McLelland scored twice for the Stars and Darcy Blume was 1 for 1 with an RBI and a walk. Ashley McDonald also got her first hit in her freshman debut.
