January 8 – 20, 2018

WINTER BREAK'S HIGHLIGHTS

- The Soldotna High School boys basketball team travelled to San Diego to participate in the Surf n' Slam tournament. The Stars went 1-2 in the tourney, taking on two teams from Washington and one from New York City. In the match-up with Friends Academy (NYC), Soldotna prevailed 54-47 led by a 25-point performance from senior Sam McElroy. Soldotna is now 3-3 on the season (0-0 in conference).
- The Soldotna High School girls basketball team took the ferry over to Kodiak for two conference games this past weekend. In Friday night's game, SOHI overcame a slow start to capture a 54-21 win. The Lady Stars enjoyed a balanced scoring attack, led by Danica Schmidt (17 points), Aliann Schmidt (12 points), and Brittani Blossom (11 points). SOHI returned to the court Saturday morning and captured a 47-14 win. Soldotna was once again led by Danica Schmidt (14 points), Aliann Schmidt (12 points), and Brittani Blossom (9 points). Ashley McDonald and Meijan Leaf also scored their varsity points on the trip. Soldotna is now 4-1 on the season (2-0 in conference).
- The Soldotna High School cheerleading squad performed at halftime of the Citrus Bowl in Orlando on January 1st. The Stars were invited to perform at the game after being selected at a cheerleading camp this past summer. Representing the Stars in Orlando included Delaney Risley, Myra Love, Melia Harding, Seryn Tyler Sproul, Joanna Cornelius, Ashlee Heiman, Abi Cooke, Brooke Belluomini, and Catie Kline.
