October 30 – Nov. 11, 2017

LAST WEEK'S HIGHLIGHTS

- The Soldotna High School wrestling program competed in the King of the Mountain Duals in Seward this past weekend. The Stars finished 3rd in Pool A on Friday, defeating ACS (48-33), Grace Christian (51-27), and Barrow (42-40). Gideon Hutchison and Bechler Metcalf both went undefeated and were named "King of the Mountain."
- The Soldotna volleyball team defeated conference rival Kenai 3-0 on Senior Night at SOHI. Before the match, SOHI honored seniors Cally Christianson, Ella Stenga, and Shay Zener. Those three then led the way against the Kards, with Stenga collecting several blocks and kills, Christianson distributing 15 assists and 9 service points, and Zener finishing with 13 service points and 9 digs. The Stars improved to 8-5 in non-tournament play (6-4 in the conference), and will be matched up with Kenai in the quarterfinal round of the Region tournament starting Thursday in Kodiak. All games will be streamed on <http://www.ustream.tv/channel/RgDhMQgxCMg>.
- The Soldotna swim team competed at the Region III championships this past weekend in Palmer. The girls finished in a tie for second in the team standings while the boys finished in 6th place. Top individual performers for the SOHI girls included Sydney Juliussen (1st in the 100 free and 2nd in the 50 free), Zeina Abouelkheir (2nd in the 500 free), and Portia Padilla (3rd in the 100 backstroke). The SOHI boys were led by Kylin Welch (2nd in the diving event), Sam Skolnik (3rd in the diving event), and Connor Gross (3rd in the 500 free).
