

SOPREP ANNOUNCEMENTS

December 12-23, 2016

Last Week's Highlights:

- The Soldotna Stars wrestling program competed at the Northern Lights Conference Championships this past weekend at Kenai Central High School. SOHI had a strong showing, ultimately qualifying 11 wrestlers for this upcoming weekend's state championship meet. Qualifying on the boys' side for the Stars included Logan Craig (2nd at 98 pounds), Gideon Hutchison (2nd at 113 pounds), Bechler Metcalf (2nd at 152 pounds), Brenner Furlong (2nd at 182 pounds), Travis Howell (3rd at 132 pounds), Abraham Van Hout (4th at 170 pounds), Austin Schrader (5th at 170 pounds), Aaron Faletoi (4th at 220 pounds), and Austin Reeves (5th at 285 pounds). On the girls' side, the Stars celebrated two conference champions in Vydell Baker (132 pounds) and Amanda Wylie (145 pounds). Both Baker and Wylie are only freshmen.
- The Soldotna High School hockey team competed in the Big Lake Lions Classic this past weekend at the Big Lake Arena in Houston. The Stars finished 5th overall but earned a huge win over Palmer on the tournament's opening day. Much like the game last Thursday, the Stars could not stop Palmer from getting two clutch goals in the final period. However, there would be no tie this time. Freshman Galen Brantley III scored the game winner (it was third goal of the game).
- The SOHI Nordic ski team competed in the annual Lynx Loppet at Kincaid Park in Anchorage this past weekend. The boys' finished 8th overall with a team time of 2:24:47. The top finisher for the boys' was Koby Vinson (21st overall). Cameron Blackwell was the girls' top finisher (49th overall).
