

SOPREP ANNOUNCEMENTS October 31- November 12, 2016

Last Week's Highlights:

- The Soldotna Stars football team was well represented in the 40th annual Alaska Shriners North-South Football Classic in Anchorage on Saturday, October 29th. Seniors Bryce Martin, Aseli Finau and Jace Urban were members of the South team who prevailed with a 14-0 victory. Bryce Martin was named the Player of the Game for his superb play at linebacker.
- The Soldotna Stars' volleyball team defeated Nikiski 3-1 (25-15, 22-25, 25-13, and 25-22) on Saturday. The Stars were celebrating their senior night and received huge performances from seniors Taylor Earll (3 kills on 20 hits and 6 service points) and Drewe Zeek (7 kills on 16 hits and 14 service points). Also coming up big for SOHI were Cally Christianson (9 service points), Ituu Tuisaula (9 kills, 9 blocks, and 11 service points), Shaylynn Zener (13 service points), and Kodi McGillivray (6 kills on 18 hits). The Stars finish the regular season with a 12-4 non-tournament record and have earned the second overall seed in the upcoming NLC tournament.
- The Soldotna swim team had a fantastic weekend at the Region III meet in Koidak. The girls won the overall crown, while the boys finished second overall. The girls were led by individual champions Sydney Juiliussen (50 free) and Portia Padilla (100 backstroke). They also picked up a huge win from the 200 yard medley relay team. The boys received individual championships from Cody Watkins (50 free and 100 butterfly) and Jacob Creglow (100 breaststroke). Fourteen Soldotna swimmers qualified for the upcoming state meet in Juneau.
- The SOHI wrestling team won the Jerry Palmer Invitational at Bartlett High School this past weekend. The Stars were the top overall finishers in a tournament that featured 25 teams from around the state. Individual champions for the Stars included Gideon Hutchison (120 pounds) and Bechler Metcalf (152 pounds).
