Last Week's Highlights:

- The Soldotna Stars football team defeated Eagle River 47-0 on Saturday, September 24th. The Stars got touchdowns from several players, including Jace Urban (5-yard run), Brandon Crowder (quarterback sneak), Brenner Furlong (43 yard-run), and Jeremiah Lefao (interception return). SOHI is now 7-0 on the season and 3-0 in the Northern Lights Conference. They extended their state record winning streak to 46 games.
- The SOHI cross country team hosted the Region III championships on Saturday, September 24th at the Tsalteshi Trails. In the 4A varsity races, the SOHI girls finished 6th and the boys finished 5th. Top performers for the Stars included Sean Verg-In (1st in the JV boys open race), Josh Shuler (9th overall in the 4A boys varsity race), Koby Vinson (12th overall in the 4A boys varsity race), and Molly Erickson (22nd overall in the 4A girls varsity race). Both Josh and Koby qualified for next weekend's state meet.
- The Soldotna Stars volleyball team defeated Nikiski on Tuesday, September 20th. The Stars rallied from 1-2 deficit to defeat the Bulldogs in 5 sets (11-25, 25-18, 19-25, 25-12, and 15-11). SOHI was led offensively by Judah Aley (8 kills), Kodi McGillivray (15 service points), and Cally Christianson (18 service points). Defensively, Ituu Tuisaula and Aliann Schmidt led a strong Soldotna front line with 15 combined blocks.
- The Soldotna Stars volleyball team also competed in the West Spiketacular this past weekend. The Stars finished 6-2 in pool play, defeating East, Wasilla, Grace Christian, Barrow, West Valley, and Ketchikan. SOHI finished tied for 5th overall after bracket play.
- The Soldotna Stars swim team had a busy weekend, hosting the Pentathlon on Friday and the SOHI Invite on Saturday. On Friday, both the boys and girls teams finished second overall. Top individual performers included Cody Watkins (3rd overall in the boys' events), Jacob Creglow (7th overall in the boys' events), Jacob Hall (8th overall in the boys' events), Portia Padilla (5th overall in the girls' events), and Sydney Juliussen (6th overall in the girls' events).
- On Saturday, the swim team hosted the SOHI Invite. The SOHI girls' won the meet, demonstrating great depth and getting individual wins from Darby McMillan (200-yard medley) and Portia Padilla (100 butterfly). The boys finished second overall, receiving individual victories from Cody Watkins (100 butterfly) and Jacob Creglow (100 breaststroke). The boys' 200-yard medley relay team of Jacob Creglow, Jacob Hall, Cody Watkins, and Kylin Welch also brought home a 1st place finish.
