

SOPREP ANNOUNCEMENTS August 22-September 2, 2016

Last Week's Highlights:

- The Soldotna Stars football team defeated North Pole 57-13 on Friday, August 19th at Justin Maile Field. The win was SoHi's 41st in a row, making it the 4th longest active streak in the nation. The Stars were led through the air by quarterback Brandon Crowder, who finished the game 8-for-11 with 3 touchdowns and 203 yards. Senior Levi Hensley caught two of those scoring strikes, including a 40 yard touchdown pass on the Stars' first offensive snap of the day.
- The SoHi cross country team competed in two meets last week, the first being the Nikiski Class Races on Monday, August 22nd. Top finishers for the Stars' included Kellie Arthur (7th overall in the Junior-Senior girls' race), Cameron Blackwell (6th overall in the Freshman-Sophomore girls' race), Josh Shuler (5th overall in the Junior-Senior boys' race), and Jeremy Kupferschmid (3rd overall in the Freshman-Sophomore boys' race). Soldotna also hosted the 27th annual Tsaltheshi Invite on Saturday, August 20th. In the varsity races, SoHi finished 14th overall in the girls' division and 11th overall in the boys' division. Top finishers included Kellie Arthur (45th overall in the girls' race) and Josh Shuler (35th overall in the boys' race).
- The Soldotna Stars volleyball team got off to a great start this past weekend, defeating Kodiak 3-0 (25-19, 25-21 and 25-15) on Friday and 3-1 (25-18, 21-25, 25-18, and 25-22) on Saturday. SoHi was led by the play of seniors Judah Aley (10 kills) and Drewe Zeek (8 kills, 2 solo blocks, and 2 block assists) in Saturday's match. The Stars are now 2-0 on the season (both wins register as conference wins as well).
